

GETTING DOWN WITH LOCKDOWN??

GETTING OUT OF YOUR HOME AND GOING FOR A WALK IS GOOD FOR YOUR MIND AND BODY!

Why not walk to the places on this map? You could also visit one of our "Manbassador" businesses and exchange your vouchers at the same time? And don't let the rain put you off...
...humans are waterproof - go grab your coat!

OAKWOOD CLOCK
[Wetherby Road LS8 2FA]
This was made in 1904 by Potts and Sons and was originally going to be the centrepiece of the new Leeds Market Hall. However alterations to the Market meant that it was moved to Oakwood in 1912.

FFORDE GRENE
[Roundhay Road LS8 5RL]
Built in 1938, the Fforde Grene pub closed in 2004 and is now a supermarket. Many bands played there including The Sex Pistols, U2 and The Rolling Stones... before they were famous! Its patrons were an inspiration for Chumbawamba's "Tubthumping".

GIPTON BOARD SCHOOL
[Harehills Road LS8 5HS]
This magnificent building erected by Leeds School Board in 1897 provided an elementary education for boys and girls up to the age of 14. It was closed in 1986 and has now become Shine.

LEEDS UNION WORKHOUSE
[Beckett Street LS9 7LN]
Leeds Union Workhouse opened in 1861 at a cost of £32,00 to accommodate 800 paupers. In 1944 it became part of St James's Hospital, and in 1995-97 it became the splendid Thackray Medical Museum.

THE BURTON FACTORY
[Hudson Road LS9 6EB]
This interesting building was the manufacturing headquarters of Montague Burton, "The Tailor of Taste". Begun in 1921, by 1925 it was the largest clothing factory in the world, eventually employing 10,500 people.
